1.1 Calendar Description

This course is an opportunity for those students potentially interested in postgraduate studies to work with a committed faculty advisor to research a problem and design experiment(s) that address a solution. Evaluation of the course requires a substantive literature review and to write a research proposal. Selection of a faculty supervisor and approval from course coordinator must be obtained before course selection.

Pre-Requisites: 14.00 credits
Restrictions: Registered in Animal Biology Major or Animal Science Major. Instructor consent required.

1.2 Course Description

This course provides an opportunity for students to become more actively involved in a specific research topic in a discipline of their choosing. The student will work closely with an individual faculty advisor and be part of their research team working on a project of mutual interest. This course allows the student to review current literature and analyze lab data and/or design new protocols to further research development and knowledge in their chosen research area. The student/faculty advisor may also wish to pursue more in-depth studies through the continuation of their project in ANSC*4710, Research in Animal Biology II in the following semester.

1.3 Timetable

There will be a class meeting at the beginning of the semester (date and time will be announced on CourseLink). Students work closely with their research project advisor to determine a schedule for their regular one on one weekly meeting.

1.4 Final Exam

No final exam in this course.

3.1 Submissions

- Assignments should be submitted electronically as instructed in the poster outline

4 Learning Outcomes

At the completion of this course, the student will have had the unique opportunity to explore an individual research project and achieve the following learning outcomes.

4.1 Course Learning Outcomes

By the end of this course, you should be able to:

1. • Develop an understanding of the literature in a specific field of interest to you,

2. • Critically assessed the primary literature in the research area

3. • Further develop written communication skills

4. • Further develop oral and visual presentation skills

5. • Develop an awareness of research and the scientific method

5 Teaching and Learning Activities

This course is very unique in that the content depends upon the area of research chosen by the student in conjunction with the research advisor. During the course of the semester, the student will explore the literature in their chosen area of research and in conjunction with the research advisor, develop a research proposal for a real or hypothetical research project. If the student plans to continue on to ANSC-4710, the research proposal should present a research project that can be accomplished in a single semester. It is possible to enroll in both ANSC-4700 and ANSC-4710 in a single semester. In that situation, you will review the literature, propose a project, conduct the research and analyze the results.

To complete the course requirements, students will write a literature review and research proposal and present a poster at the end of the semester. At the research advisor’s discretion, the student may combine the literature review and research proposal in a single paper.

The report should be written in a format of a journal paper of the advisor's choosing. Discuss the format and contents of the review with your advisor as they will be grading the review.

5.3 Research Proposal 25%

The research proposal should briefly state current issue (you may want to use the relevant key point in your literature review as a basis for the introduction), outline the hypothesis and objectives of your research and the experimental design of your project. You should include expected results as well as significance of the proposed research. Potential pitfalls and alternatives may also be discussed.

7 Course Statements

7.1 Late Policy

- If you choose to submit assignments to the Dropbox tool late, the full allocated mark will be reduced by 5% per day after the deadline for the submission of the assignment to a limit of six days at which time access to the Dropbox folder will be closed. Late Graded Homework Assignments will NOT be graded if they are submitted after the solutions have been posted to CourseLink.

- Extensions will be considered for medical reasons or other extenuating circumstances. If you require an extension, discuss this with the instructor as soon as possible and well before the due date. Barring exceptional circumstances, extensions will not be granted once the due date has passed. These rules are not designed to be arbitrary, nor are they inflexible. They are designed to keep you organized, to ensure that all students have the same amount of time to work on assignments, and to help to return marked materials to you in the shortest possible time.
7.2 Grades and Feedback

- Unofficial assessment marks will be available in the Grades tool of the course website.
- Your instructor/TA will attempt to have grades posted online within 2 weeks of the submission deadline, if the assignment was submitted on time. Once your assignments are marked you can view your grades on the course website by selecting Grades from the Tools dropdown menu on the navbar. Your course will remain open to you for seven days following the last day of the final exam period.
- University of Guelph students can access their final grade by logging into WebAdvisor (using your U of G central ID).
- https://webadvisor.uoguelph.ca

7.3 Grading Policies and Missed or Late Final Papers

Grading Policies and Missed or Late Final Papers

The report deadline is defined by mutual agreement between the research advisor and student. The research advisor and the student can mutually agree to modify the deadline if needed. If the grade is not provided in time to meet the Registrar’s Grade deadline (see above), the grade will need to be resolved through the incomplete grade system in the Registrar’s Office. Therefore, every effort should be made to complete the course requirements before the final grade deadline.

7.4 Grading Policies and Missed or Late Poster Presentation

The poster presentation is scheduled by the Course Coordinator to coincide with the end of classes or early during the exam schedule at a mutually agreeable time. Students with a valid academic conflict can make other arrangements with the Course Coordinator to present the poster at a different time. If a student misses their scheduled presentation time and has not contacted the Course Coordinator, the University's requirements for documentation of academic consideration come into play (see below).

7.5 Netiquette Expectations

The course website is considered the classroom and the same protections, expectations, guidelines, and regulations used in face-to-face settings apply. Inappropriate behaviour will not be tolerated. Examples of inappropriate online behaviour include:

- Posting inflammatory messages about your instructor or fellow students;
• Using offensive language;
• Copying or presenting someone else’s work as your own;
• Adapting information from the Internet without using proper citations or references;
• Buying or selling term papers or assignments;
• Posting or selling course materials to course notes websites;
• Having someone else complete your quiz or completing a quiz for/with another student;
• Stating false claims about lost quiz answers or other assignment submissions;
• Threatening or harassing a student or instructor;
• Discriminating against fellow students, instructors, and/or TAs;
• Using the course website to promote profit-driven products or services;
• Attempting to compromise the security or functionality of the learning management system; and
• Sharing your username and password.

8.4 Copies of Out-of-class Assignments

Keep paper and/or other reliable back-up copies of all out-of-class assignments: you may be asked to resubmit work at any time.

8.5 Accessibility

The University promotes the full participation of students who experience disabilities in their academic programs. To that end, the provision of academic accommodation is a shared responsibility between the University and the student.

When accommodations are needed, the student is required to first register with Student Accessibility Services (SAS). Documentation to substantiate the existence of a disability is required; however, interim accommodations may be possible while that process is underway.

Accommodations are available for both permanent and temporary disabilities. It should be noted that common illnesses such as a cold or the flu do not constitute a disability.

Use of the SAS Exam Centre requires students to book their exams at least 7 days in advance and not later than the 40th Class Day.

For Guelph students, information can be found on the SAS website
https://www.uoguelph.ca/sas

For Ridgetown students, information can be found on the Ridgetown SAS website https://www.ridgetownc.com/services/accessibilityservices.cfm

8.6 Academic Integrity

The University of Guelph is committed to upholding the highest standards of academic integrity, and it is the responsibility of all members of the University community—faculty, staff, and students—to be aware of what constitutes academic misconduct and to do as much as possible to prevent academic offences from occurring. University of Guelph students have the responsibility of abiding by the University's policy on academic misconduct regardless of their location of study; faculty, staff, and students have the responsibility of supporting an environment that encourages academic integrity. Students need to remain aware that instructors have access to and the right to use electronic and other means of detection.

Please note: Whether or not a student intended to commit academic misconduct is not relevant for a finding of guilt. Hurried or careless submission of assignments does not excuse students from responsibility for verifying the academic integrity of their work before submitting it. Students who are in any doubt as to whether an action on their part could be construed as an academic offence should consult with a faculty member or faculty advisor.

Please note that the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic may necessitate a revision of the format of course offerings and academic schedules. Any such changes will be announced via CourseLink and/or class email. All University-wide decisions will be posted on the COVID-19 website (https://news.uoguelph.ca/2019-novel-coronavirus-information/) and circulated by email.
